Dear Artists. 23rd July 2021

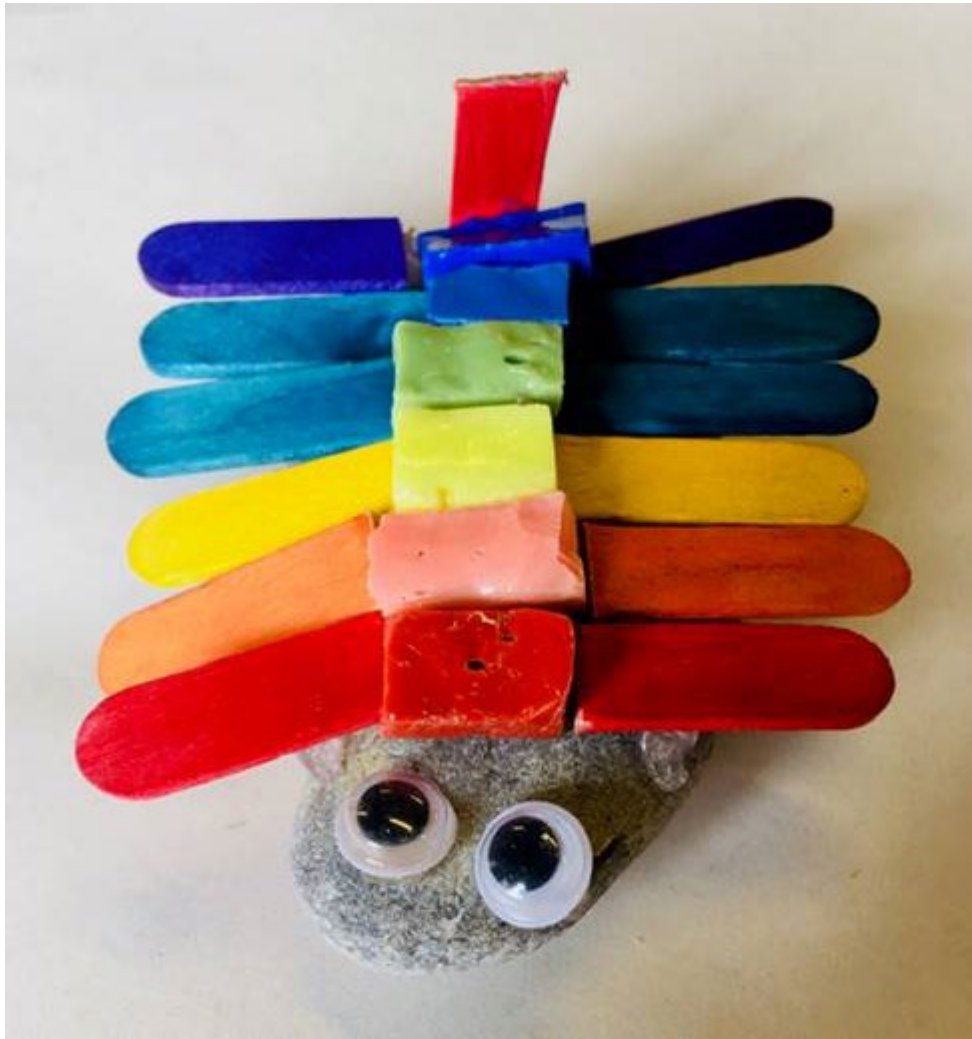

Our newsletter celebrates your amazing new art works and brings news from the studio. In a week of soaring temperatures we hope you have found ways to stay cool and feel safe and well. We begin with a new contribution from Raj.

*From the wonderful colours of Healing Garden!
Have you heard of Colour Therapy?
You can help yourself as I do!
It's a small step in healing!
So does the skies!
Self help is an important element if we seek tranquillity!
Enjoy!
Smile!*

Last week Sylvia expressed the feelings of many of us when she wrote:
Raj's contributions to the newsletter are really always so very inspiring and uplifting. Thank him profoundly!

Thanks Sylvia and on behalf of us all, thank you Raj.

Anne's beautiful rainbow bug!

Covid-19.

Thanks to everyone for accepting the Richmond Fellowships advice we continue with the Covid safety measures at Art Matters, including safe distance working and the wearing of face masks. The advice will be reviewed in three weeks.

If for any reason these safe measure are going to be difficult for you please contact the studio.

Thank you Barry for a message we all support.

There is no place for racism in football, in society, in the workplace or this country. We must all unite and fight it, wherever we see it. Derek Caren; CEO, Richmond Fellowship.

Art Matter Studio Summer Closure

The studio will be closed from Monday 16th August until Tuesday 31st August 2021 for our Summer break.

Gatton Park Art Hunt 1st August.

Richmond Fellowship is now part of Recovery Focus.

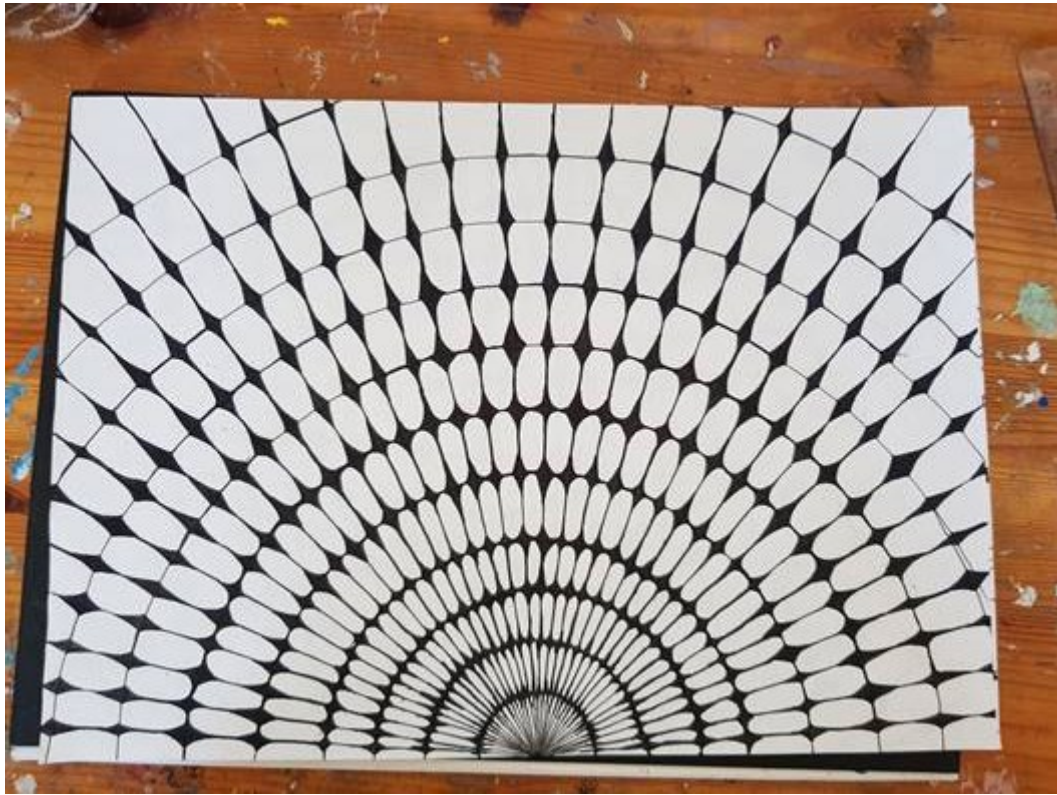

Sunday, August 1st, Gatton Park in partnership with Art Matters will be holding the great art hunt. Find one of the special fir cones to claim your free and unique print from the Art Matters studio! There will be demonstrations of print making and you can have a go at foam printing.

The park and gardens are open 12 noon – 5 pm. Please arrive within your 30 minute time slot to help with social distancing.

Booking is essential ; <https://gattonpark.co.uk/events/open-day-62/>

£5.00 entry for adults and children go free.

Thank you to everyone involved in this wonderful project. Please, come along!
